

The Fraternity of Alpha Kappa Lambda

2024 Conclave and Officers' Academy FAQ

Alumni Questions

1. Who needs to register?
 - a. Any National Executive Council member, housing corporation or alumni association delegate that wishes to participate in legislative sessions needs to register for the full event.
 - b. Any alumni members wanting to simply attend education sessions or meals can choose individual meals or the Saturday registration package.
2. Do alumni pay for hotel rooms?
 - a. Yes. The Fraternity does not handle hotel arrangements for alumni. Individuals can book their rooms via the following link:

 - b. Housing Corporations and/or Alumni Associations should reimburse their delegates room expenses.
3. How does the Alumni Wine Reception work?
 - a. Full registrations and Saturday registrations for alumni include the reception. If an individual wants to attend but did not register for one of these then they must pay a separate registration for it.
4. Why should alumni attend?
 - a. The Fraternity is a lifelong membership and experience. Attending events like this helps rekindle those bonds of brotherhood. It also sets an example to the undergraduates.
 - b. Business of the Fraternity needs alumni engagement and support.
 - c. There will be education sessions and programming for alumni to participate in and experience.
